- V. Administrative Reports
 - A. Athletic Director: Absent
 - B. Elementary School Principal:
 1. Angie Huston gave an update on all of the Holiday activities happening in the Elementary. The PTO is busy setting up the Holiday Shop and all students will have an opportunity to shop. Students are participating in a Holiday spirit week. All students will have the opportunity to decorate Christmas Cookies. Staff is doing a community potluck. She thanked local businesses and organizations that stepped up and helped out families in need during the Holiday Season.
 - C. Middle/High School Principal:
 1. Julie Yeider shared updates happening around the Middle/High School. The 43rd lunch auction took place. Mrs. Freshcorn and Mrs. Husband did a great job organizing the event and Mr. Salow auctioneered. A donor pulled through at the end helping middle school students to raise the most money. The majority of the funds raised will go to 17 students that will go on a shopping trip and out to dinner. Staff members have volunteered to accompany the students one evening so the students can go shopping independently. All funds not spent go back into the NHS or middle school student council accounts. Mrs. Higgs hosted the first Grinch breakfast and raised $1200 towards the band's spring trip. The sophomore class hosted a lock-in for elementary students and raised $730. PTO sponsored an 8th grade formal. Mrs. McNett is working on updating the Why You Matter photos and will get them printed and hung in the hallway. Winter homecoming and exams will take place after students return from Christmas Break.
